

For immediate release

John Zimich Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs (570) 831-2195
jjimich@mohegansunpocono.com

Ron Burke collects Three Training Wins at Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs

North America's leading trainer Ron Burke collected three training wins through the first 10 races Friday (Nov. 6) night at Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs.

In the $25,000 claiming pace feature it was Derek Bromac N winning in 1:52.4.

Andrew McCarthy was in the sulky with Derek Bromac, a nine-year-old gelding that was winning for the ninth time in 37 starts in 2009.

Lindy's Bandit, a five-year-old Bettor's Delight gelding with Anthony Napolitano in the sulky, was another Burke winner. Lindy's Bandit stopped the timer in 1:51.4 and won for the fourth time in 14 outings this season.

Burke's third victory came in the 10th race with No Nonsense Yankee, a six-year-old pacing gelding. This was the second win in seven starts for No Nonsense Yankee, who stopped the timer in 1:54.2.

Joe Pavia Jr., the meet's leading driver, had a driving double after 10 races to push his season's total to 228. George Napolitano, Jr., and Anthony Napolitano also had driving doubles Friday evening through 10 races.

Trainer Randy Castellani, who is one of the co-hosts of the Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs harness racing show, collected a training win with trotter Fleetwood Liz. Eric Goodell left quickly from the seven hole and scored a wire-to-wire victory with Fleetwood Liz in a $7,000 claiming trot race.\